

Questor Financial Corp Privacy Policy

Your privacy is important to us. This Privacy Policy is our commitment to the protection of your privacy and any personal information you disclose to us.

Collection and Use of Personal Information

We collect personal information such as name, address, contact information, date of birth, social insurance number and financial information. We use social insurance numbers for identification purposes only. We collect these numbers at the option of the customer; they are not required to complete a credit application. We use the information we collect to:

- confirm identification;
- assess creditworthiness;
- provide leasing and/or financing services to you; and
- promote our leasing and/or financing products and the services and products of our lenders.

Disclosure of Personal Information

We do not sell information about our customers to others. Your personal information is a vital part of our ongoing business relationship with you. We will only disclose personal information:

- On a confidential basis, to our agents, funders and service providers, to complete the transactions initiated by you;
- To protect and enforce the rights and property of our lenders;
- For fraud prevention or the reduction of the risk of fraud;
- If the disclosure is required or permitted by law; or
- If you request or consent to the disclosure.

From time to time, we may outsource information processing or other services to businesses in the United States, only for the purposes for which the personal information is collected. As a result, your personal information may be available to the United States government or its agencies under a lawful order.

Safeguards and Security

Questor Financial provides appropriate physical, technological and organizational measures to safeguard personal information and to protect it from unauthorized access, deletion or alteration. This includes limiting employee access of personal information to those employees who have a business reason to know this personal information.

The SSL certificate that we use is from GeoTrust and has 256 bit encryption to safeguard the privacy of any information sent to us electronically.
